Mr. Thomas Arnold, Jr. and Miss Virgil Jenkins, the handsome daughter of Mr. Colby Jenkins, eloped to Harrodsburg last week and were married. They have returned and have taken rooms at the groom's father's near Bryantville.

The Cincinnati Tribune has this item about a lady well-known in Lancaster:

"Miss Leila McKee, President of the Western College, Oxford, Ohio, will at an early date address the members of the Woman's Club, under the auspices of the Department of Current Events. Her subject will have to do with her travels in England and on the Continent."

BUCKEYE.

What is the matter with Lancaster? Brown & Dickerson had to furnish one of her citizens a lot of kindling wood last week.

Several of our young people attended the basket supper at the home of Alex Walker Saturday night, the girls taking some very pretty, well-filled baskets.

A large number of our citizens attended the Lancaster court Monday, and the following parties bought stock: J. N. Teater 29 cattle at $4.75, J. W. Brown 25 heifers at $3.50, Jos Simpson 8 calves at $127.60.

There was a mad dog belonging to W. G. Jones, showed some signs of hydrophobia, and after attacking several dogs, a hog and a cat, was killed. All have been killed that were bitten except the hog which still lives.

Louis Ray visited relatives in Lancaster, Saturday and Sunday. Misses Flora and Nora Ray and Chas. Barker were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Curtis, of Kirksville, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wharton Anderson have been on the sick list. Mrs. Marion Ray has returned from an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. Kanatzer, of Madison.

W. R. Burton bought of Harmon Teater 5 heifers at 3-1-4c per pound, for April delivery. Thinking of calves brings to my mind an incident that occurred near here last summer. Mr. R. L. Teater had the misfortune to lose in the yard his pocket book containing $110, a calf came along and chewed up both pocket book and money, he however, was fortunate enough to find the corner of two $10 bills, for which he managed to get full value.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasant or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. Storms' Drug Store. 1m

LEAF.

Mrs. Minerva Pullins has been quite sick.

Joe Mullen sold ten shoats to Wm. Hendren for $25.

Jack Adams sold a good saddle mare to J. B. Parks for $70.

James Murray sold 72 acres of land to J. R. Henry at $10 per acre.

At the sale of W. R. Adams, on the 26th ult., the land was bid in at $25 per acre.

Mrs. Battle Pullins sold to Tom Hendren a bunch of forty pound shoats at $2 per head.

Mrs. J. W. Smith and children, of Richmond, are visiting relatives here before going to Arkansas to live.

Rev. Solomon Foster, of Lee county, Virginia, has been in this vicinity looking at the land with the view of buying a farm. We would be glad if the gentleman can find a place to suit him and make a deal, for a preacher in this neighborhood would not go amiss.

There are three little things which do more work than any other three little things created—they are the ant, the bee and DeWitt's Little Early Riders, the last being the famous little pills for stomach and liver troubles. Storms' Drug Store. 1m

FARM AND STOCK NOTES.

W. R. Burton bought 23 cattle at $24 per head.

T. C. Galley bought 22 cattle at $13 per head.

Galley & Barton bought a lot of hogs at 3 to 3-1-4.

J. I. Hamilton bought at Green Siler eight cows at $15 each.

C. W. Anderson sold to Thos. Stone, a bunch of 93 lb. shoats at 3-1-4 c.

Chas. Adams sold to W. R. Burton 17 85 lb. shoats at 3-1-4 c.

Woods & Lynn sold Joe Burnside 25 yearling cattle at $22.25.

W. G. and W. Anderson, sold to M. J. Farris 10 cattle at $25.

G. and C. W. Anderson sold to Ben Kelley 25 yearling heifers at $18.25 per head.

W. R. Burton bought of S. Morgan 17 young cattle at $24 per head.

J. C. Hays sold to Moore & Cotton, of Madison, 18 heifers at $14.

Lyons & Allen, of Lincoln, sold J. M. Higginbotham 4 light yearlings at $23.75 per head.

J. M. Higginbotham bought of different parties 34 cattle at from $20.50 to $24 per head.

M. J. Farris, of Boyle, bought from various parties about 230 cattle at from $25 to $46 per head.

R. G. Fox, of Danville, bought several good mules at from $60 to $75. No demand much for horses.

W. R. Burton shipped a load of light hogs to the Cincinnati market this week, for which he paid 3 and 3-1-4 cents.

John Graham, of West Union, Ohio, owns a horse that is 23 hands high and weighs 2,500 pounds. Its head is 44 inches long.

"Squire Royalty" bought 230 hogs this week, from different parties at 2-3-8 and 3 cents. Also 150 barrels of corn at $1.65.

During the last week in January 748 horses were shipped to Europe from Chicago. One consignment of 42 coach horses averaged $400.

A horse trained to walk fast, whether he be for saddle, single harness or team, always commands a better price than one equally good in other respects, but a slow walker.

Men who are handling good cattle have not been complaining of the business. There is always profit in them. Whenever the cattle market is depressed it is the poor stuff which suffers; the profits are so slight that they are easily annihilated.

The Richmond Register says J. T. Curtis has just returned from a two weeks' stay at Bloomington, Illinois, where he sold two cars of mules at not very satisfactory prices. It is Mr. Curtis' opinion that no Kentuckian need expect to succeed in Illinois unless he is a hustler.

The eastern market and demand continues to improve. Our hemp buyers here are giving the producers a share of the benefit. One farmer who has a large order informs us he has an offer of $3.55 while another, who are credibly informed, sold his at $4—Lexington Gazette.

The Harrodsburg Democrat reports the following sales: Frank Metcarray has sold 33 real and saddle horses within the past ten days at an average of $80. Ciel Coleman bought of Breck Bonta 100 hogs at $3.10 per hundred. M. J. Farris sold to J. C. Johnson a car load of hogs for $3.60 delivered.

A good authority says that notwithstanding the demand for good horses and the fact that such horses are so scarce that hardly 75 per cent. of those in the hands of the farmers are marketable, there seems to be scarcely any movement on the part of farmers to change or improve their methods of breeding. In the meantime the export demand is rapidly exhausting the present small supply.—Ex.

There were between 500 and 600 cattle on the market Monday, about 500 changing hands at good prices. Steers weighing from 600 to 800 pounds bringing 5 to 5-1-2 cents per lb., and heifers from 3 to 4 cents. Mr. Farris, of Boyle, took most of the steers at above prices, heifers being taken by different ones, the bidding on the latter not being quite as active as it was a week before. Mules found a ready sale, but horse stock was slow, Fox of Danville taking all that were in good condition. Sweeney sold to Griggs Bros. of Madison, 86 mixed cattle for $2,900.

The Lexington Stock Farm says in a letter received recently from C. W. Williams, he says: "Allerton, 2-9-1-4, will be shipped to Lexington Monday, March 14, going directly to Mr. H. L. Asher's farm where he will stand this season. This is the farm formerly owned by W. C. Frazer and the home of Red Wilkes while in Kentucky. Allerton's fee will be $100, spot cash, when mare is bred, but fee to be returned if mare does not get in foal. Parties having a foal can, if they prefer, breed them on shares. Allerton did a very large business in Kentucky last season, but could not begin to do the business offered, there being, I think, over a hundred mares that were turned away. This season, from the present indications, the rush will be still greater, and there will probably be four times as many mares offered as can be accepted. It will be useless for parties having mares that are not fashionably bred in trotting lines to offer them at all, for they will certainly be rejected."

Jessamine Journal reports the following sales: During the past week Brown Cogar and R. A. Dodd have bought 20,000 bushels of wheat in Jessamine county at $1 per bushel. Mr. Jacob Troutman sold his crop of tobacco, yielding 18,330 pounds off of 10 acres at 12-1-2c per pound, which brought $2,257.50; an average of $22-75 per acre. Who can beat this? Jas. H. Hulett, of Brannon, delivered his crop of tobacco to parties at Versailles, 31,000 pounds, which brought 14c. Jin is a hustler and is an up-to-date farmer. R. A. Dodd bought 10 head of mules Monday from various parties at an average of $60 per head. Mr. Dodd shipped a car load of mules yesterday to Charlotte, N. C., for the southern market. W. R. Stone, whom the Journal regards as one of the best farmers in Jessamine county, sold 11 head of mules to Louisville at $14.10 per hundred. Such prices as these are what tickle the farmer's under the short ribs and may they still continue to lace case.

What pleasure is there in life with a headache, constipation and biliousness? Thousands experience them who could become perfectly healthy by using DeWitt's Little Early Riders, the famous little pills. Storms' Drug Store. 1m

Keep Your Money at Home.

FOR THE RECORD.

I often hear the question asked, "Why is it that Lancaster is so far behind the times, and her industries have such hard rows to hoe?" I have been a close observer of men and things about town for the past several years, and think I can safely and correctly answer that question by the true reply, "The people of Lancaster do not stand up for, and support her enterprises." A home man may engage in any kind of business, and lay any kind of goods right at the doors of our people and he can not sell them, but just let some stranger come to the town and he could sell a forty acre field full of elephants in a day's time. I have seen people buy articles from peddlers which a home merchant could not make them a present of. It takes a Yankee, or anybody the people of Lancaster have no interest in to receive the support of her people.

It is nothing but that ungovernable desire to "take up with strangers" that kills our town. Let a drummer strike the town, a man none of us ever saw or heard of, and he can sell groceries, clothing, hardware, or in fact anything, by the car load. Take your business, for instance, I have seen the Record publish probably a column windy notice, or puff of certain people whom I have seen turn right around and order their printing from some city firm who could not do them a good turn if they had the inclination. I have seen men go to certain groceries and get credit, and turn right around and order groceries from Cincinnati, which, after paying the freight, amounted to more than our home men could sell them for. I know men who order their flour by the barrel from the city who would say, if told the Lancaster mill was to

Sympathetic Husbands.

The sympathetic tenderness of a loving husband is everything to an expectant mother, especially during her first ordeal. George Layton, Esq., a prominent druggist of Dayton, O., gives the following case:

A customer of mine, whose wife has used four bottles of "Mother's Friend" before confinement, says, after seeing the effects of the remedy, that if she had to go through the ordeal again, and there were but four bottles on the market, and the cost was $100 per bottle, she would have them.

"Mother's Friend" is a scientifically compounded liniment which affords certain relief in the various ailments preceding childbirth, and assures proper elasticity to the cords and muscles involved in the final ordeal.

"Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists, or expressed on receipt of one dollar.

be moved away, "Oh, that will not do, we need the milk." Of course we need the milk, but you old blockhead, why don't you patronize it. The same thing applies to every branch of trade or business in town. One might say, "I have a right to spend my money where I please. Of course they have, but they make it off of our people and if they would stop long enough to think, they would see they are morally obligated to keep it where our people can use it."

We have the kindest-hearted, most liberal people in the world here in Lancaster, but the kindness is too much inclined to strangers first. Charity begins at home, but we have too many here who do not look at it that way. If a man wants to buy his stuff from a stranger he ought to pack his little belongings and move to that community. Our town would be all right if we could only weed out the element that is constantly working for foreign and sending the money away.

What we want is people who will work for bringing money to the town, no lot of fellows who make money off our people and then send it away. The latter class will soon kill the good old town completely, and all enterprising people should work against that element. I am for Lancaster, I sit, stand, and all the time, and will head a mob to tar and feather some of the leaders of the "send-away-and-buy-it" element.

A LONG MAN.

It is Easy to Tell.

People who fail to look after their health are like the carpenter who neglects to sharpen his tools. People are not apt to get anxious about their health soon enough. If you are "not quite well" or "half sick" have you ever thought that your kidneys may be the cause of your sickness?

It is easy to tell by setting aside your urine for twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate, scanty supply, pain or dull ache in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

There is satisfaction in knowing that the great remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, fulfills every wish in relieving weak or diseased kidneys and all forms of bladder and urinary troubles. Not only does Swamp Root give new life and activity to the kidneys—the cause of trouble, but by treating the kidneys it acts as a tonic for the entire constitution. If you need a medicine take Swamp Root—it cures. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar.

You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail, upon receipt of three two-cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle. Hemp breaking is in progress in this locality.

The wheat crop is looking very well in this section.

Several shoats have been sold recently at 3c per lb.

Mrs. Rebecca Scott sold a fine mare a few days ago for $4.00.

Prof. Deboe is teaching school at George McQuerry's at the present.

There will be preaching at Mt. Lebanon, the 2nd Sunday, inst.

Miss Mollie East and Mrs. James H. Raney, are seriously ill at this writing.

Dogs have been playing havoc with sheep in this locality the past week. Several of the dogs were killed after an order had been obtained from the magistrate for their lives. So Steward Saunders was sent to Sugar Creek, where he killed his first dog.

After years of untold suffering from piles, R. W. Pursell of Knitersville, Pa., was cured by using a single box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Skin diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and chafing sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. Storms' Drug Store. 1m #### Strikes Centre.

In his letter to the Stanford Journal, Judge Hughes strikes the nail squarely on the head when he says:

"Our people talk very flippantly of what we need in the way of public improvements, but there are three things needed that would bring more happiness to the people than everything else combined. What we really need is more charity and less tattling, more work and less loafing, more practice and less theory. Let the people try these things and they will almost see angel wings sprouting while, living as they do, they only taste of the bitter things of Perdition."

Just so.

Last week's paper may have suited you, but there are others it didn't suit; this week's issue may not please you, but there are others whom it will please. Every issue of a newspaper receives its share of praise and censure generally at a ratio of about 15 ounces of censure to 1 ounce of praise—but the editor quietly attends to his business, says nothing and "saw wood."
